

Improving Selection to the Foundation Programme Communications

5 October 2011

Will Riddington

Siobhan Fitzpatrick

Medical Schools Council

Introduction

Communication vital to ensuring success of the PRE

Our role:

- Central communications resource hub
- External “face” of the project

Your role:

- Communicate the changes to students

Resources available to you

- PRE Administrator's Guidance
- ISFP website – www.isfp.org.uk:
  - Worked SJT examples
  - EPM framework
  - FAQs
- Slideset with speaker notes for ISFP lecture
- Posters
- Template emails and certificate of participation
- E-bulletin updates
- Email/meeting updates

PRE Administrator's Guidance

- Includes:
  - Overview of the Parallel Recruitment Exercise (PRE)
  - SJT Administrator responsibilities
  - EPM Administrator responsibilities and framework
  - PRE Team roles and responsibilities
  - PRE Timeline and checklist
  - Supporting communications materials

Press requests

Possible that you will have enquiries from journalists (especially following MTAS)

Do:

- Refer enquiry to Will Riddington
will.riddington@medschools.ac.uk

Don't:

- Respond to questions over the phone
- Believe it's "off the record"!

Upcoming activities

Student feedback – March 15, via FPAS:

- EPM decile score
- SJT performance (decile)

- PRE Recruitment Review, March TBC

Contact us

will.riddington@medschools.ac.uk
020 7419 5427